Interfaith’s Behavioral Health and Recovery programs work to improve the mental health and wellness of North County’s community members. Interfaith provides a variety of services including individual, group, couples and family counseling to community members enrolled in our housing and social service programs. Interfaith also provides sobering services and housing to help individuals successfully break the cycle of addiction.

Crisis Management and Counseling
Interfaith offers counseling services to homeless individuals, as well as participants in our housing and veterans programs.

Addiction Recovery Services
Interfaith’s Sobering Services Program, based in Escondido, provides supportive services and transitional housing for homeless and low-income individuals working to overcome addiction.

Other Available Services Include:
Veteran’s service-related trauma therapy
Senior counseling
Couples therapy
Post Traumatic Stress Disorder therapy
Anger Management
Crisis Intervention
Child and Adolescent Therapy

2016 Successes
89% of veterans improved family and peer relationships
179 parents and children engaged in counseling
93% of veterans receiving counseling improved mental health

www.interfaithservices.org