Kits for Kids

Every day, families with children of all ages come to Interfaith seeking food and other basic needs. Additionally, many do not have the resources to provide their children with toys and activities to promote fun and learning in their homes.

With your help, Interfaith can provide these families with "Kits for Kids" - small kits or bags containing school and art supplies, small games, toys, activities, or anything else to bring a smile to the face of a young child.

Impact:
- Facilitate fun among children and families
- Allow parents to focus on other goals, such as finding employment and allocating financial resources to effectively meet the basic needs of their family

Volunteers are responsible for providing some or all of the following NEW items in each kit or bag:
- Books and educational materials
- Journals, pens, and/or pencils
- Playing cards, card games, board games
- Art supplies (markers, activity books, construction paper, pens, paint, crayons, etc.)

Time Commitment:
- This can be a one-time opportunity, or an ongoing commitment
- Length of project varies depending on number of volunteers and number of kits being made
