Shannon Vandewarker and her two sons were delighted to deliver books for children currently living in Interfaith housing! Shannon is a representative for USBORNE books, and thought what better gift of hope to give a child than a book. Shannon rallied friends, family, and colleagues for help, and together they donated $725, equaling 150 books for children and students of all ages. These high-quality, colorful, imagination-creating books will be forever treasures for the youngest residents of Interfaith housing. Thank you Shannon!

Temple Solel Volunteers Donate New Serving Trays

Volunteers Jim and Carrie Greenstein, from Temple Solel, were serving dinner to our Haven House Year-Round Shelter residents and noticed that our meal trays were looking a bit worn out. That inspired them to make an incredible donation of over $600 to purchase 168 brand new serving trays for our Nutrition Center. Thank you to the Greensteins for funding this much-needed upgrade!

7th Grader Donates 700+ lbs of Food for Interfaith’s Pantry

Brian decided he wanted to host a food drive to support Interfaith’s Emergency Food Pantry. After contacting the store manager at his local Ralphs, Brian received permission to ask customers for donations at the store’s main entrance. For several weekends he asked folks to donate and was pleasantly surprised with how much support he received.

After weeks of collecting, Brian and his mom, Jackie, loaded up her SUV, and drove an estimated 700+ lbs of food to Interfaith. When asked what inspired him to host a food drive, Brian simply said, “I just wanted to do something good,” and he certainly did!
